

George Herbert Battrick

Private, Royal Marine Light Infantry (No. PO/16508), aboard HMS Bulwark

Born about May 1894 in Blandford

Son of John (a labourer, who died about February 1914) and Jane Battrick of East Street, Blandford

Worked as a carpenter

Killed when the battleship HMS Bulwark exploded off Sheerness on 26th November 1914, aged 20

His body was not recovered for burial and he is commemorated on the Portsmouth Naval Memorial