

Name	Walter Charles Hannam
Born	1898 Lychett Matravers, Purbeck, Dorset. Baptised 10/07/1898 Lychett Matravers
Rank	Lance Corporal
Regiment/Service	Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, 1st Bn.
Service No	45063
Date of Death	8th November 1918
Age	20 years
Theatre of war
Grave Reference	X. C. 31.
Cemetery	Terlincthun British Cemetery, Wilmille, Departement du Pas-de-Calais, Nord-Pas-de-Calais, France.
Father	George Walter Hannam. born 1865 Blandford died 1923 Lychett Matravers
Mother	Sarah Ann Green. born 1870 Blandford died 1898 Lychett Matravers
Parents' marriage	1892 (registered in Poole, ?Lychett Matravers)
Siblings	Polly Tryphena born 1893 Lychett Matravers, died 1903 Blandford George William born 04/10/1894 Lychett Matravers died 1970 Poole Violet Ellen Ball b 1896, bapt 21/06/1896 Lychett Matravers d1897
Spouse	None
Children	N/A
Census 1911	Red House, Salisbury Road, Blandford 13 years old, living with aunt, uncle and adoptive family
1901	32 Orchard Street, Blandford 3 years old, living with living with aunt, uncle and adoptive family
Notes	Mother died either during or shortly after his birth, he was adopted by his paternal aunt and her husband, Sarah Argyle Cutler (nee Hannam) and Albert Henry Cutler. He died of wounds.  Walter Charles Hannam died of wounds remembered on his aunts and uncles grave at Blandford cemetery. HANNAM, WALTER CHARLES. Reg. No. 45063. Rank, Private, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, 1st Batt. ; died of wounds, France, November 8, 1918 ; born Hytchett, Dorsetshire.