

William Woolridge Clark

Private, 6th Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment (No. 15061)

Born about August 1884 in Sturminster Newton

Son of George (a railway labourer) and Elizabeth Clark of Mount Pleasant, 1 East Street, Blandford

A reformatory inmate in 1901

Worked as a bricklayer

Posted to the Balkans in December 1915

Killed in action during the attack on Flers on the Somme on 27th August 1918, probably aged 34

Buried in Bulls Road Cemetery, Flers, Somme

(His younger brother, Walter, was killed in 1914)