The Chairman summarised a recruitment process for the Town Clerk, managed by the current Town Clerk, which had allowed a period of just over a month from 24th December 2025 to 28th January 2026 for advertisement and had attracted 12 applications. He thanked the Town Clerk for managing the process, which had saved the council money.

The Finance & Staffing Committee shortlisted six candidates for an interview process over two days last week. Staff and Councillors were given the opportunity to watch the candidates' presentations and a recruitment panel consisting of Cllrs Hugo Miéville, Colin Stevens and Steve Hitchings conducted the interviews.

The Chairman of Council asked the Town Clerk to share Mrs Commons' job application form, which she had agreed to and this was tabled for the Councillors who are not on the Finance & Staffing Committee. Mrs Commons is highly qualified and experienced for the role and demonstrated a passion for the town.
